

Student Handbook

Version 5 · Academic Year 2026–2027

1. Welcome to the University

This handbook is your guide to student life, academic expectations, campus facilities, and the rules that support a safe and productive learning environment. All enrolled students are expected to read and follow the policies outlined here.

2. Code of Conduct

- Students must treat faculty, staff, and peers with respect and courtesy at all times.
- Academic dishonesty, including plagiarism and cheating, results in disciplinary action.
- Ragging or harassment of any kind is strictly prohibited and may lead to expulsion.
- Use of university property must be responsible; damage may incur repair charges.
- Smoking and use of prohibited substances on campus is not allowed.

3. Attendance Policy

A minimum of 75% attendance is required in each course to be eligible to sit for final examinations. Students falling below this threshold may be issued a shortage notice and, in exceptional documented cases (medical or family emergency), may petition the Dean's office for condonation.
